

Considerations:

1. Consider reducing the size of the balcony located off of the master bedroom.
2. Consider redesigning the street-front facing façade at the living room to refine the recessed detail for more consistency with the proposed style.

Analysis:Site Planning:

The proposed site planning is appropriate, as modified by any proposed conditions, to the site and its surroundings for the following reasons:

- As conditioned, the residence shall be setback a minimum of 38 feet from the street-front setback.
- As conditioned, the retaining wall closest to the curb within the street-front setback will be eliminated.

Mass and Scale:

The proposed massing and scale are appropriate, as modified by any proposed conditions, to the site and its surroundings for the following reasons:

- As conditioned, the roof form at the front elevation will be redesigned to reduce complexity and be consistent with the design of the residence.
- As conditioned, the roof form at the staircase will be redesigned such that the volume is either integrated into the design of the residence or expressed consistent with the modern Spanish design.

Design and Detailing:

The proposed design and detailing are appropriate, as modified by any proposed conditions, to the site and its surroundings for the following reasons:

- The windows are detailed appropriately, with additional recess and, as conditioned, plans shall be revised to make them consistent with the details.
- The proposed materials are consistent with Spanish style design.

All resubmittals require a DRB application and fee payment. According to Section GMC 30.47.075, projects submitted after 180 days following the DRB's decision date are to be considered as new projects and must submit a new DRB application and all corresponding materials, including new mailing list and labels.
