

Celebration of the new Oak of Peace: Experience defining moments in California's history that shaped the City of Glendale

- Explore the historic adobe, the oldest building in Glendale registered as a California historical landmark
- Attend the dedication of the new Oak of Peace that memorializes the original tree that died of root rot in 1987
- Witness the historic reenactment of the meeting between Don Jesús Pico and General Andrés Pico on Jan 11, 1847, establishing the separation of California from Mexico
- Learn about the history of the Catalina Verdugo Adobe and Rancho San Rafael

October 22, 2023

1:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Catalina Verdugo Adobe

2211 Bonita Drive, Glendale

Entrance Fee: Suggested Donation of $10

Children under 12 free

Activities throughout the property:

- Tours of the Catalina Verdugo Adobe
- Demonstration of making masa for handmade tortillas
- Demonstration of making adobe bricks
- History of adobes in California
- History and Photo Display of Rancho San Rafael/Glendale
- Entertainment - Music and Dancing
- Scavenger Hunt

Art projects for kids:

- Pumpkin painting
- Fall leaf sketching

Food available for purchase:

- Street tacos and a variety of drinks provided by Sandoval Tacos on Wheels
- Churro Cart

Parking is available on the streets near the property.

Included on this flyer are photos of the historic Rancho San Rafael and the original Oak of Peace tree.

Thank you to:
Don José Verdugo Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution
Days of the Verdugos Heritage Association

